

EDITORIAL BRIEFS.

Mr. Blaine is in Venice—electioneering, it is supposed.

It will be seen that ex-Judge Charles E. Stuart has been elected Corporation Judge.

The Emir of Afghanistan has ordered 200 bagpipes for Cabul. Music soothes the savage breast.

Wilson Barrett, the actor, has been robbed in London, and the thief didn't get trash either.

One firm of fruit shippers in Fresno, Cal., has sent East this season 200,000 boxes of raisins, each box weighing twenty pounds.

Russia's frontier forces are said to be more than double the combined frontier forces of Austria and Germany. And yet there'll be no war.

The New York State commissioners condemn hanging and recommend electricity as the means of inflicting the death penalty. To what base uses, &c.

The convention of New York apirists is in session at Utica, and the New York Sun suggests that Mr. Evans will be able to be present and read a paper which he has prepared on "The Presidential Bee—an Autobiographical Study."

Frank Howard and T. Swann Latrobe, two well-known young men of Baltimore, started to walk to Washington yesterday on a heavy wager. Latrobe fainted within four miles of the goal, and Howard finished a winner in 7 hours and 29 minutes. "What fools we mortals be."

An "Anti-Celibacy Insurance Company" has been established in Denmark, in which young women beginning at the age of 13 can insure themselves for a trifling sum. If they marry they forfeit all claims. Some in this country might join with a certainty of receiving the benefits.

Mrs. Mary T. Keep, who claimed that her husband, Charles D. Keep, late editor of the New York Wall Street News, was not dead, had the body exhumed yesterday, and found that the corpse was that of her husband, whereupon she fainted. Detectives were present to watch the proceedings, as a good deal of "filthy lucre" is involved.

"Bro." John Jasper of "the sun do move" notoriety having had some jewelry stolen from his room in Richmond, announced the fact from the pulpit to his congregation, and intimated that he suspected somebody. The result was that the congregation organized a search expedition and found the articles in a pawn shop, and finally had Mary Green, a colored sister arrested for the theft.

A bank under the control of colored men is to be organized in Richmond. It is to be called the Savings Bank of the Grand Fountain United Order of True Reformers. The capital stock is not to be less than $10,000, which may be increased to $100,000, which may probably never be. The projectors expect all the colored laborers to use this institution for the deposit of their savings, in which they will probably be mistaken. The "Freedmen's Savings Bank" rather discouraged "the colored pop."

A youth from New York was drowned from the training-ship Portsmouth in Hampton Roads yesterday.

Sir Michael Hicks Beach, in a speech at Bristol, yesterday evening, advocated the extension of local government to Ireland after order has been established.

The verdict returned by a Western Coroner's jury in the case of a man who hanged himself by his suspenders to the bed post is said to be: "The deceased came to his death by coming home drunk and mistaking himself for his pants."

Dr. John Gordon died at Texarkana, Ark., Monday. He was at one time a prominent merchant at St. Louis, and a close friend of Benton and other statesmen of the day. He was bankrupted by the war and for the last ten years has lived the life of a recluse. He was a second cousin of Lord Byron.

Nicholas Richardson, the Baltimore and Ohio engineer who is accused of criminal carelessness in running his engine through a crowd of suburban passengers waiting for an Illinois Central train on the evening of Dec. 21, was in Chicago yesterday held for the criminal court in $1,000 bonds.

Both Houses of the Iowa legislature yesterday voted for United States Senator. In the Senate Jas. F. Wilson received 30 votes, T. B. Anderson 11. In the House Wilson received 58 votes, and Anderson 26. In both houses protests were entered by the democratic side against permitting balloting for a United States Senator to go on under the present membership of both houses.

Caucus Nominees.

The democratic members of the General Assembly held a caucus in the hall of the House of Delegates last night to nominate a Register of the Land Office and corporation judges for the cities of Lynchburg and Alexandria. There were present eighty members.

It was decided first to take up the office of Register of the Land Office. Messrs. J. Andrew Wingfield, present incumbent, Captain W. R. Gaines, of Charlotte, and John D. Grant, of Accomac, were placed in nomination and the first ballot resulted: Wingfield, 19; Grant, 29, and Gaines, 32.

Mr. Wingfield was dropped, and Colonel Randolph Harrison put in nomination the next ballot resulting: Harrison, 6; Grant, 32; Gaines, 42. Mr. Gaines's nomination was made unanimous. He is a one-legged ex-Confederate soldier, and has served as member and Sergeant-at-Arms of the House.

Judge Charles E. Stuart was unanimously nominated as judge of the Corporation Court of Alexandria.

For judge of the Corporation Court of Lynchburg ex-Senator J. Singleton Diggs was nominated on the first ballot.

Court of Appeals Yesterday.—Hanby's administrator against Henrize's administrator and als. Appeal allowed to decree pronounced by the Circuit Court of the county of Washington on the 22d of February, 1887.

Marshall against Farmers and Mechanics' Savings Bank of Alexandria and others. Argued by Francis L. Smith, esq., for appellant, and John M. Johnson, S. F. Beach and Charles E. Stuart, esqs., for appellees.

In the State Senate yesterday the resolution to authorize the Committee on Privileges and Elections to investigate the right of Mr. William M. Ellis to the Fourth Senatorial district seat now occupied by Mr. Houston, was finally adopted. Mr. Massey voting in the affirmative, thus breaking the tie which has existed for several days.

Mr. John E. Beck, a highly esteemed citizen of Spotsylvania county, died last Saturday aged 72 years.

From Washington.

(Special Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 18, 1888.

An examination of the Congressional directory shows that of all the States, only four, Delaware, Maryland, North Carolina and South Carolina, have solid native delegations in Congress. Virginia would have, were it not that Mr. Hopkins was born in Maryland. The majority of the Mississippi delegation were born in other States, and only one of the Texas congressmen, Mr. Crain, is a native of that State. Of the Virginia representatives in the House, Mr. Bowden is the handsomest, Mr. Yost the youngest, Mr. Brown, of the Danville district, has nine living children. Mr. Gaines, the directory says, was for three years the leader of his side in the Virginia State Senate. Mr. Bowen is a member of a committee that never meets.

In the Senate on Monday Mr. Daniel introduced a bill for the relief of Arthur Connell. In the House Mr. Wise introduced bills for the right of way from Old Point Comfort to Mill Creek Bridge, to provide for the classification of clerks in first class post-offices, for granting leave of absence to clerks in first class post-offices, for fixing the hours of labor clerks in first class post-offices. Mr. O'Ferrall presented petitions of Eakle & Jones and other business men of Staunton for placing salt on the free list, for the re-emption of the claim of J. R. Keag of Rockingham county to the Court of Claims, and for the relief of George R. Mayhew. Mr. J. R. Brown presented the petition of S. P. Hickman and others of Franklin and other counties, of citizens of Copper Hill, and of citizens of Virginia for increasing the pay of 3rd and 4th class postmasters. Mr. O'Ferrall offered similar petitions of citizens of White Hall, Frederick county. Mr. Wise presented similar petitions of citizens of Curles Wharf and Erin Shades, Henrico county, and of Irwin, Goodland county. Mr. Lee introduced a bill to charter the Independent Automatic Portable Gas Works of Washington, and for the relief of Louisa Kearney. Mr. Bowden introduced bills for pensions to Martin Ballard, Wm. Randall, Bruce Martin, and Anthony Baughman.

All the members of the Virginia Congressional delegation received this morning official notification that they had been either instructed or requested by the Virginia legislature to work for a permanent quarantine at Cape Charles. Mr. Yost says the reception of such notifications has become so frequent that he looks for them by every mail and is disappointed when they fail to come. Mr. Browne says if the members of the legislature were informed of the proceedings of Congress they would know that he had sometime ago introduced a bill for the proposed object, which provides for the purchase of Fisherman's Island, the quarantine station at Cape Charles, now leased by the government, for making that station a permanent one, for permitting infected subjects from Baltimore, Norfolk, Richmond and Washington to be treated there at the expense of those cities, and for putting that place in connection with the coast line cable telegraph.

There was no crowd nor anything to attract one at the installation of Associate Justice L. Q. C. Lamar of the U. S. Supreme Court this morning. He entered the court room with the other Justices, bowing to the latter and to his fellow Justices, and to the bar, and the whole affair was over. In this connection it is mentioned that a report is in circulation to the effect that if the republican Senators had not made Mr. Lamar's confirmation a sectional question, several democratic Senators would have voted against it, on the ground of his lack of the requisite qualifications.

Col. W. E. Simms, formerly of Danville, Virginia, has leased the Syracuse Hotel in this city, and is now the proprietor thereof.

Senator Blackburn, who started to Los Angeles to see his sick son-in-law, Mr. Stuart, being informed on his way of the latter's death, thought he would return, but in consequence of telegrams from his grief-stricken daughter, has telegraphed here that he will proceed on his way to California.

The majority of the Senate Committee on the District of Columbia want the 6th street depot removed, and will probably report a bill for that object, providing for the payment of a fair price for the property, and the establishment of a union depot. Should that fail they will probably report one allowing the B. & O. R. R. to locate its depot on the lot immediately opposite that of the B. & P. R. R.

In the House yesterday Mr. Lee presented a petition from 71 citizens of the 8th Congressional district of Virginia, for prohibition in the District of Columbia; also petitions of citizens of Loudoun county, Va., and Armstrong county, Pennsylvania, for an increase in the pay of 3d and 4th class postmasters; also bills for the relief of John Henry Harrover and John A. Fairfax, and for a pension to Emma F. Read.

In the Senate to-day Mr. Sherman stated that the finance committee of that body is considering a bill prohibiting the adulteration of all kinds of food and drink.

The Senate to-day passed a bill making the fee for passports $1 instead of $5.

Mr. Mills, chairman of the House Ways and Means committee, says he is not only in favor of removing the tax on raw tobacco, but also from fruit liquor.

Representative Browne of the Accomac, Virginia, district, did not attend the Mahone meeting that was held in Richmond last night to organize a State republican league.

People from Philadelphia yesterday to day say that in the primaries in Pennsylvania yesterday for the coming district democratic conventions to appoint delegates to the next national democratic convention there was a square issue between the Randall men and the Cleveland men, and that while the latter were in the majority, the former showed a strong minority.

Letter from Richmond.

(Special Cor. of the Alexandria Gazette.)

RICHMOND, Jan. 17.—The special legislative committee appointed in 1886 to examine State securities came very near being paid for the work they did. The Senate passed a resolution to pay them for the work they did during the recess of the legislature but to day the Senate resolution was defeated in the House by the closest vote possible. Fifty one votes were required in the affirmative and fifty were given. This committee was as follows: From the Senate, Messrs. Jones, of Highland, and Wingfield, of Albemarle; from the House, Delegates Starke, of Richmond; Miller, of Powhatan, and Waddill, of Henrico. Mr. James D. Craig, of Richmond, acted as clerk for the committee and he too will not be paid. The work that the committee did was of great magnitude, and it took them several months to perform it. One thing they did was to find among the old papers and bonds in the basement of the capitol, nearly $1,000,000 worth of uncancelled coupons which when found had a marketable value. The amount named in the defeated joint resolution aggregated $2500.

Senator Moore will leave to-morrow with the Committee on Public Institutions to visit the Petersburg Normal School, the Normal School at Farmville and the Blacksburg College. He will be absent from the capitol about five days. These colleges are asking for a more liberal appropriation than they have been getting and the legislature is disposed to increase the amounts if they can see their way clear.

Dr. H. Gray Latham, president of the Virginia State Board of Medical Examiners, and Dr. Hugh T. Nelson, secretary, are out to-day in a circular letter in defense of the Virginia State Board of Medical Examiners, and to-morrow copies of this circular will be placed upon the desks of members of the General Assembly. It is an answer to the petition of the students of the Medical College of Virginia, who seem to think that the law creating the board of examiners should be abolished. In the circular letter the president and secretary of the board give a very discouraging account of the medical learning of some of the graduates who have applied for license to practice, and the way they do this is by submitting a long list of questions and showing how foolishly some of them were answered by college graduates. The following are a few of the queries and replies:

Question. Describe the larynx.
Answer. The larynx is composed of cartilage. The esophagus passes through the larynx.
Question. What is the function of the liver?
Answer. Do not know.
Question. Give the best means of disinfecting clothing, rooms, etc.
Answer. Do not know.
Question. Give tests for arsenic.
Answer. Sulphuretted hydrogen is one. Don't know the rest.
Question. Give test for mercury.
Answer. Do not remember.
Question. Give dose of tartar emetic.
Answer. Ten grains. (Should have been 1-12 to 2 grains.)
Question. Give dose of sulphate of atropia.
Answer. Hypodermically, 10 grains; by mouth, 60 grains. (Should have been from about 1-120 to 1-60 of a grain.)
Question. Give dose of corrosive sublimate.
Answer. One grain. (Proper dose, 1-30 to 1-10 of a grain.)

It is very probable that the circular will receive a spirited reply from the students of the Medical College of Virginia, who are talking a great deal of interest in the movement looking to the repeal of the law creating the examining board.

The Senate Committee will meet to-morrow to decide as to the manner of conducting the investigation in the Ellis-Houston contested election case. It is very probable that the committee will appoint a sub-committee to go to Roanoke and take the evidence.

THE PLAINS, Jan. 16, 1888.

To the editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

Dear Sir—An editorial in your paper of the 13th founded on what purports to be a resolution passed by the Farmers' Assembly does me injustice which I hope was unintentional. No such resolution was passed by the Farmers' Assembly, I'm sure. Such a resolution was reported from the committee, but was amended to conform to my views in my remarks to the assembly, which were in part published in the State of the 11th, and which paper doubtless you get. In those remarks I urged that the tax should be taken off tobacco and fruit brandy only, and the assembly fully endorsed me in that. Your slur at the farmer's ignorance in the last clause of your editorial is uncalled for, and as the president of their assembly I must resent it, and say that I think the farmers know what is their interest about as well as they can be instructed by the ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, and that they were faithfully represented by their delegates in the assembly. Yours truly,

ROBT. BEVERLEY,
President of Farmers' Assembly.

The question was then taken on an amendment offered by Mr. Edmunds requiring all claims to be filed within six years, and it was agreed to, and the bill was finally passed—yeas 48, nays 10—with an amendment providing that no part of the money collected from individuals shall be retained by the United States as a set-off against any State indebtedness.

HOUSE.

After the reading of the journal the Speaker pro tem. called the House to order and said the Speaker was in process of rapid recovery, and that the occasion which called him to the chair would rapidly pass away.

Several memorials were presented.

When the doctor called at 11 o'clock he found him sitting up in bed eating a light breakfast and he seemed to be in the best of spirits. During the visit the Speaker inquired whether he would be able to keep his Atlanta and Macon engagements on the 23rd and 24th of the present month. The doctor replied that it was quite out of the question. He might stand the trip, but it would be hazardous in the extreme, and advised that the engagements be cancelled. The physician expresses the opinion that it would be some considerable time before the Speaker could resume his duties in Congress.

France and Italy.

PARIS, Jan. 18.—The Republique Francaise has a telegram from Rome which says that M. The incident mentioned consisted of a breach of consular rights on the part of the Florence police, who had searched the French consulate for papers connected with a pending law suit.

Mr. Justice Lamar.

WASHINGTON, January 18.—The Supreme Court of the United States sits with a full bench to-day for the first time since the 4th of May, 1885.
